

Sociology in Math Education, SoMaEd

The MATHeCADEMY.net welcomes you to 1, 2 or 3 1day fee-free spring conferences held yearly in Berlin.

Day 1. Introduction to Sociology

Dialogs between sociology of patronization and sociology of enlightenment

13-20: Plato vs. the sophists, Hobbes vs. Locke, Durkheim vs. Weber, Habermas vs. Foucault

09-13: Marx vs. Bourdieu, Luhmann vs. Derrida & Lyotard, Parson vs. James & Blumer

Day 2. SoMaEd conference, Sociology in Math Education

13-14, plenary keynote.

14-15, papers.

15-16, coffee.

16-17, papers.

17-18, papers.

18-19, workgroups.

20- , dinner.

09-10, workgroups.

10-11, papers.

11-12, plenary keynote.

12-13 lunch.

C-papers: 4page projects, B-papers: 8page pre-papers. A-papers 12page full papers.

The two plenary keynote papers will be drawn by random among the A-papers.

To avoid censorship, patronization and discourse protection, all papers are accepted and published at the MATHeCADEMY.net

Day 3. Republican Research Methods

Replacing debate with information: Two republican alternatives to patronizing hermeneutics.

13-20: French paralogy discovering hidden contingency to the ruling consensus

09-13: American grounded theory inducing categories to be accommodated by deduced predictions.

Venue: The cafeteria at the Humboldt University Berlin

Hotel: Motel One Alexanderplatz or others

Participants pay themselves for the trip, the food and the hotel.

Paper deadline 1: Jan. 10, 2 keynote papers are found by random among the A-papers.

Paper deadline 2: February 10.

Deadline for attendance at 1, 2 or 3 days: March 1.